Screen advertising

What's more, Fonebox users are one of the st attractive demographics around, comprising young, affluent, techno-savvy consumers who lead an active lifestyle and who are not afraid to pay for premium services.

Advertisers enjoy 8 seconds of exposure every 90 seconds whenever the Fonebox unit is turned on, making it ideal for product placement.

Fonebox locations can also use the large screen to promote their own businesses, advertising upcoming events, special offers and discounts, or promoting new products in partnership with major suppliers.
